Please respond to one of the following questions:

“About Men” by Gretel Ehrlich

- 1) Gretel Ehrlich writes that “a cowboy is someone who loves his work.” Explain what she means by this. Do you believe that it is important to love the job you have or do you think that whether or not you enjoy your work is of little importance? Explain your reasoning.
- 2) According to Ehrlich how do cowboys relate to women? After finishing the article what are your impressions of cowboy life? If the opportunity presented itself would you take work as a cowboy or cowgirl?
