Please respond to one of the following questions:

“Generation X” by Kirsten Cole

- 1) What are some of the characteristics of generation X? If you had a choice, would you rather have been born into a generation other than the one you belong to now? Why or why not?
- 2) According to Kirsten Cole some people from generation X, who are also called baby busters, have a cynical attitude pertaining to people from the baby boomer generation. What is this cynical attitude? How do you view people from the generation that you belong to; that is do you think that people of your own age group have been or will become productive members of society?
