

Juan Williams

Author, Journalist and Political Analyst
Thursday, April 26, 2007
A300 Auditorium
Program begins at 1:00 p.m., followed by book signing and reception

Senior Washington Post correspondent and contributing political analyst for Fox News, Juan Williams is the author of Eyes on the Prize: America's Civil Rights Years, 1954-1965. His current best seller, Enough: The Phony Leaders, Dead-End Movements and Culture of Failure that are Undermining Black America—and What We Can Do about It, builds on Bill Cosby's controversial comments about African-American responsibility. Williams argues that, while racism still exists, the time has come for black Americans to acknowledge and overcome the "culture of failure" that haunts their community.

Bunker Hill Community College

Bunker Hill Community College invites you to Compelling Conversations, a series that has hosted former President of Ireland Mary Robinson, best-selling author Barbara Ehrenreich, TV newscaster Ray Suarez and others. Come and hear this year's speakers and meet them at a reception after each program.

While the Compelling Conversations Speaker Series is free and open to the public, seating is limited to 400. Reservations are recommended.
