

Articulation Agreement between Bunker Hill Community College
And
Northeastern University (Undergraduate Admissions)

This articulation agreement (this "Agreement") dated 9/1/2015 is between BUNKER HILL COMMUNITY COLLEGE a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with its usual place of business in Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, hereinafter called BHCC, and NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY, a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with its usual place of business in Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, hereinafter called NU.

It is agreed by and between BHCC and NU for the mutual consideration and covenants herein contained as follows:

1. BHCC and NU hereby agree to an articulated program as stated in this Agreement, including without limitation, Attachment A, attached hereto and incorporated herein whereby certain students from BHCC may complete a Bachelors of Art or Bachelor of Science degree at NU, as long as they fulfill the prerequisites for the chosen program.
2. Upon successful completion of the degree program at BHCC, which completion shall be in accordance with all the standards applicable to BHCC students, said students will be accepted NU, in accordance with its published standards, subject to and in accordance with the limitations and procedures set forth in the Agreement. All reference to standards will be those published in the respective current catalog of each institution and other applicable materials published by each institution.
3. BHCC students who have successfully completed a BHCC Associate of Science (A.S.) or Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree program with an overall grade point average of 3.4 are eligible for admission to the NU designated colleges of the College Arts Media and Design, College of Social Science and Humanities, D'Amore-McKim School of Business (excluding International Business major) and College of Science contingent on satisfactory completion of other NU admissions requirements, and subject to availability of openings in the specific program to which the BHCC students have applied. BHCC associate degree graduates with a minimum overall grade point average of 2.5 are eligible for admission to the NU College of Professional Studies. The NU Admissions Committee retains the right to make the final decision on each student's application.
4. BHCC student s accepted into any of the NU colleges are subject to the graduation requirements of the college catalog and other published standards issued by NU in the year of their respective matriculation. BHCC student is subject to changes that may be required to meet accreditation standards, including, but not limited to, those established by New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE) or those determined by NU faculty as warranted to ensure a quality educational program.

5. The Admissions offices, or other appropriate offices or designees, of both institutions agree that they will communicate at the beginning of each fall term to discuss recruiting, entrance requirements, and any other concerns that either may have about the affiliation. Other communications between them may be scheduled as needs arise. Each party agrees that it will communicate as soon as possible to the other party of any changes to its programs that will impact the Agreement. Each institution shall provide the other with advance copies of any written materials that it publishes to describe the terms of this agreement.

6. This Agreement shall continue until terminated by either party. Either institution may terminate this Agreement in any year, without cause, provided that the terminating institution has given the other institution written notice at least 90 days prior to the effective date of such termination and further provided that no such termination shall adversely affect any student attending or accepted to NU by virtue of the terms of this Agreement. In the event that the said Agreement is not terminated, it will automatically be extended year by year.

7. The Agreement is being executed within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the parties agree that this Agreement shall be interpreted under the laws of said Commonwealth.

8. The parties agree that this Agreement embodies all of the agreements made by and between then supersedes any prior agreements and the understandings with regards to the acceptance of BHCC students into NU colleges and that any modifications or amendments thereof must be in writing executed by both parties in order to be effective.

9. All notices or other communications made or given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed made or given upon receipt, or three business days after deposits in the U.S. Mail, in an envelope, postage prepaid, registered or certified mail, and addressed as follows:
